For the Week Ended 4-Aug-2026

- Recap: Over the past week, 44 S&P 500 members announced new dividends in line with their previous payouts, 8 announced hikes, and there were no cuts or suspensions.
- Dividend News:
 - UNP announced a 3% dividend increase. Additionally, KVUE, CLX, VST, STE, BR, KIM, and FRT hiked by an average of ~5%. Together, these 8 hikes add ~0.03 index points (ip) to the SPX's annual dividend run rate.

 - Large payers AAPL, XOM, CVX, MRK, NEE, AMGN, and GILD announced unchanged dividends over the past week, in line with expectations. EOG held its dividend flat for a fifth consecutive quarter; however, the timing of its next increase is less clear after the company pulled forward its hike by one quarter last year.

- Open Interest in SPX dividend futures rose ~1% w/w, driven by increases in 2026-28 partially offset by a decrease in 2029 contracts outstanding (Figure 4).
- Dividend options OI also rose ~1% w/w, split ~55% calls/45% puts, with a notable increase in the Z8 80 puts outstanding (Figure 6).
- Breakdown of 2026 SPX Dividends: Out of 84.3 points of dividends expected for FY26, ~59% (49.4ip) have already gone ex (realized) to date, ~12% (10.2ip) have been announced (but not yet gone ex-dividend), and ~29% (24.7ip) remain undeclared/at risk.
- SPX bottom-up estimates fell slightly w/w (Figure 1). The estimated current annualized dividend run-rate on the S&P 500 is ~85.4ip (i.e., based on constituents' last announced dividends and the current composition).

Important Disclosures

Company-Specific Disclosures: J.P. Morgan does and seeks to do business with companies covered in its research reports. As a result, investors should be aware that the firm may have a conflict of interest that could affect the objectivity of this report. Investors should consider this report as only a single factor in making their investment decision. Important disclosures, including price charts and credit opinion history tables (if applicable), are available for compendium reports and all J.P. Morgan–covered companies, and certain non-covered companies, by visiting <https://www.jpmm.com/research/disclosures>, calling 1-800-477-0406, or e-mailing research.disclosure.inquiries@jpmorgan.com with your request.

Explanation of Equity Research Ratings, Designations and Analyst(s) Coverage Universe:

J.P. Morgan uses the following rating system: Overweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will outperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe); Neutral (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will perform in line with the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe); and Underweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe. NR is Not Rated. In this case, J.P. Morgan has removed the rating and, if applicable, the price target, for this stock because of either a lack of a sufficient fundamental basis or for legal, regulatory or policy reasons. The previous rating and, if applicable, the price target, no longer should be relied upon. An NR designation is not a recommendation or a rating. Some stocks under coverage have a rating but no price target; in these cases, we expect the stock will outperform/perform in line/underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe of the relevant duration of the region. In our Asia (ex-Australia and ex-India) and U.K. small- and mid-cap Equity Research, each stock’s expected total return is compared to the expected total return of a benchmark country market index, not to those Research Analysts’ coverage universe. If it does not appear in the Important Disclosures section of this report, the certifying Research Analyst’s coverage universe can be found on J.P. Morgan’s Research website, <https://www.jpmorganmarkets.com>.
