

Global Fund Manager Survey

The Noes Have It

BofA August Global Fund Manager Survey

Bottom Line: August FMS is 3rd most bullish survey of investor sentiment since '22; cash level down to uber-low 3.5% from 3.6%, and global equity allocation surges to highest since Nov'21 (net 56% OW); consensus conviction is no macro landing, no Fed hike, no AI capex cut, no DEM sweep, no bears...positioning continues to recommend investors retreat or rotate within risk assets rather than reload.

On Macro: growth expectations positive, record 56% predict “no landing” for economic growth; highest number of investors forecasting “boom” (43%) since Feb'22, double-digit EPS growth (37%) since Aug'21.

On Policy & Politics: 72% say no Fed hike before US midterms, Warsh at Jackson Hole to be hawkish 31%, dovish 7%, neutral 53%; asked for market reaction to DEM midterm sweep...37% say “yields up/stocks down,” 17% “yields down/stocks up,” 16% “yields down/stocks down,” 9% “yields up/stocks up.”

On Risks, Crowds & Chips: most crowded trade = “long global semiconductors” (53% down from 82%); biggest tail risk = AI bubble (32%) and most likely source credit event = “AI hyperscaler capex” (38%); that all said, 71% say no AI capex cut in '26, and 58% say AI won't disrupt labor market until 2028 at the earliest.

On AA: investors long stocks (esp. EM & US - most since Dec'24) & commodities, short bonds; Aug rotation into tech, banks & energy, short-covering in staples & discretionary, rotation out of industrials & healthcare; gold seen as most undervalued since Mar'23.

FMS Contrarian Trades: long bonds/short commodities, long staples/short tech, long discretionary/short banks, long UK stocks/short US stocks.

Taiwan Readers: Neither the information nor any opinion expressed herein constitutes an offer or a solicitation of an offer to transact in any securities or other financial instrument. No part of this report may be used or reproduced or quoted in any manner whatsoever in Taiwan by the press or any other person without the express written consent of BofA Securities.

This document provides general information only, and has been prepared for, and is intended for general distribution to, BofA Securities clients. Neither the information nor any opinion expressed constitutes an offer or an invitation to make an offer, to buy or sell any securities or other financial instrument or any derivative related to such securities or instruments (e.g., options, futures, warrants, and contracts for differences). This document is not intended to provide personal investment advice and it does not take into account the specific investment objectives, financial situation and the particular needs of, and is not directed to, any specific person(s). This document and its content do not constitute, and should not be considered to constitute, investment advice for purposes of ERISA, the US tax code, the Investment Advisers Act or otherwise. Investors should seek financial advice regarding the appropriateness of investing in financial instruments and implementing investment strategies discussed or recommended in this document and should understand that statements regarding future prospects may not be realized. Any decision to purchase or subscribe for securities in any offering must be based solely on existing public information on such security or the information in the prospectus or other offering document issued in connection with such offering, and not on this document.

Securities and other financial instruments referred to herein, or recommended, offered or sold by BofA Securities, are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and are not deposits or other obligations of any insured depository institution (including, Bank of America, N.A.). Investments in general and, derivatives, in particular, involve numerous risks, including, among others, market risk, counterparty default risk and liquidity risk. No security, financial instrument or derivative is suitable for all investors. Digital assets are extremely speculative, volatile and are largely unregulated. In some cases, securities and other financial instruments may be difficult to value or sell and reliable information about the value or risks related to the security or financial instrument may be difficult to obtain. Investors should note that income from such securities and other financial instruments, if any, may fluctuate and that price or value of such securities and instruments may rise or fall and, in some cases, investors may lose their entire principal investment. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Levels and basis for taxation may change.

This report may contain a short-term trading idea or recommendation, which highlights a specific near-term catalyst or event impacting the issuer or the market that is anticipated to have a short-term price impact on the equity securities of the issuer. Short-term trading ideas and recommendations are different from and do not affect a stock's fundamental equity rating, which reflects both a longer term total return expectation and attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster. Short-term trading ideas and recommendations may be more or less positive than a stock's fundamental equity rating.

BofA Securities is aware that the implementation of the ideas expressed in this report may depend upon an investor's ability to "short" securities or other financial instruments and that such action may be limited by regulations prohibiting or restricting "shortselling" in many jurisdictions. Investors are urged to seek advice regarding the applicability of such regulations prior to executing any short idea contained in this report.

Foreign currency rates of exchange may adversely affect the value, price or income of any security or financial instrument mentioned herein. Investors in such securities and instruments, including ADRs, effectively assume currency risk.

BofAS or one of its affiliates is a regular issuer of traded financial instruments linked to securities that may have been recommended in this report. BofAS or one of its affiliates may, at any time, hold a trading position (long or short) in the securities and financial instruments discussed in this report.

BofA Securities, through business units other than BofA Global Research, may have issued and may in the future issue trading ideas or recommendations that are inconsistent with, and reach different conclusions from, the information presented herein. Such ideas or recommendations may reflect different time frames, assumptions, views and analytical methods of the persons who prepared them, and BofA Securities is under no obligation to ensure that such other trading ideas or recommendations are brought to the attention of any recipient of this information.

In the event that the recipient received this information pursuant to a contract between the recipient and BofAS for the provision of research services for a separate fee, and in connection therewith BofAS may be deemed to be acting as an investment adviser, such status relates, if at all, solely to the person with whom BofAS has contracted directly and does not extend beyond the delivery of this report (unless otherwise agreed specifically in writing by BofAS). If such recipient uses the services of BofAS in connection with the sale or purchase of a security referred to herein, BofAS may act as principal for its own account or as agent for another person. BofAS is and continues to act solely as a broker-dealer in connection with the execution of any transactions, including transactions in any securities referred to herein.

Flows data from the Wealth Management division of MLPF&S presented herein represents the investments and trading activity associated with all self-directed, advisor-assisted, and fully managed wealth management relationships, as well as 401(k) plan and employee stock purchase plan accounts custodied through MLPF&S.
