Q2 Earnings Season Tracker

- We are in the busiest weeks of the Q2 reporting season, with between 50 - 60% of companies having reported in the US and in Europe. Earnings growth is coming in better than consensus expected, at +20% y/y in the US, and +22% y/y in Europe, implying a positive surprise factor of 8% pts and 4% pts, respectively. The strong delivery this quarter is broadbased, with all sectors in the US, and nearly all in Europe, seeing better EPS vs Q2 '25. In addition to the positive EPS surprise, the breadth of beats is healthy, as well: the proportion of companies beating EPS estimates is above average in both regions - see Fig 4&6. Encouragingly, of the US companies that have provided guidance data, the percentage that has revised up their profit outlook is the highest since 2021 - see Fig 1.
- US: 86% of S&P500 companies that have reported beat EPS estimates. EPS growth for these companies is at +20% y/y, surprising positively by 8% pts. Earnings delivery is robust across the board, with 8 sectors recording double-digit EPS growth. Topline growth is at +12% y/y, ahead of projections by 3% pts.
- Europe: Of the Stoxx600 companies that have reported so far, 59% beat EPS estimates. Q2 EPS growth is at +22% y/y, which is a positive surprise of 4% pts. Energy sector, which was helped by the conflict-driven rise in energy prices, is the biggest contributor to the overall EPS growth this quarter. Still, ex-Energy EPS growth stands at +10% y/y, and all sectors barring Discretionary are seeing positive earnings growth. Revenue growth is at +10% y/y, ahead of estimates by 1% pt.
- Japan: 70% of companies beat EPS estimates, with overall EPS growth at +59% y/y. Revenue growth is at +11% y/y, with 62% beating topline estimates.
- Regionally, we note that the differential between US and European earnings growth has narrowed this quarter, at market cap level, but also at a median level - see Fig 2.

J.P. Morgan uses the following rating system: Overweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will outperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe); Neutral (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will perform in line with the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe); and Underweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe. NR is Not Rated. In this case, J.P. Morgan has removed the rating and, if applicable, the price target, for this stock because of either a lack of a sufficient fundamental basis or for legal, regulatory or policy reasons. The previous rating and, if applicable, the price target, no longer should be relied upon. An NR designation is not a recommendation or a rating. Some stocks under coverage have a rating but no price target; in these cases, we expect the stock will outperform/perform in line/underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst’s, or the Research Analyst’s team’s, coverage universe of the relevant duration of the region. In our Asia (ex-Australia and ex-India) and U.K. small- and mid-cap Equity Research, each stock’s expected total return is compared to the expected total return of a benchmark country market index, not to those Research Analysts’ coverage universe. If it does not appear in the Important Disclosures section of this report, the certifying Research Analyst’s coverage universe can be found on J.P. Morgan’s Research website, <https://www.jpmorganmarkets.com>.
